	CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROL/US OFFICIAL
UNTR	Company (Seriet Zene) SECURITY INFORMATION
PIC	Koethen Airfield
110
ALUAT	TONPLACE_OBTAINED	50X1-HUM
TF OF	CONTENT_
	BTAINED PREPARED 26 December 1951
FERE!
	2	4-1-1-1
GES_	ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)
MARK	S
	5	OX1-HUM
	On 16 November 1951, Russians were still working on the fuel dump at Koethen A large portion of the containers was dug in. A freight train of about 15 bowhich were apparently empty, was observed on the spur track. No loading or un loading was observed. A track branched off from the Bernburg-Koethen railroatoward the field. Four cars which were used by Soviet or German train escort personnel were on this track. No activity was observed there.  No lighting	xcars, - d line ing
」 ・ ・ ・ ・ ・ ・ ・ ・ ・ ・ ・ ・ ・ ・	which were apparently empty, was observed on the spur track. No loading or un loading was observed. A track branched off from the Bernburg-Koethen railroad toward the field. Four cars which were used by Soviet or German train escort personnel were on this track. No activity was observed there.  No lighting facilities were available at the field. Three trucks with box-like superstru probably mobile radio installations, were just west of the site on which the planes of the alert flight were previously parked. The previously reported D station was no longer east of the Halle-Koethen railroad line. Five or six Russians were engaged in surveying 500 meters north of Koethen-Dessau railro line, about1,000 meters west of Osternienburg. Jeep was parked at Koethen railroad station. Petween 2 and 2:10 p.m. there was flying by four biplanes over Koethen. Two planes flew individually while the other two were	xcars, - d line ing ctures F
	A large portion of the containers was dug in. A freight train of about 15 bow which were apparently empty was observed on the spur track. No loading or un loading was observed. A track branched off from the Bernburg-Koethen railroad toward the field. Four cars which were used by Soviet or German train escort personnel were on this track. No activity was observed there.  No lighting facilities were available at the field. Three trucks with box-like superstru probably mobile radio installations, were just west of the site on which the planes of the alert flight were previously parked. The previously reported D station was no longer east of the Halle-Koethen railroad line. Five or six Russians were engaged in surveying 500 meters north of Koethen-Dessau railroline, about1,000 meters west of Osternienburg. Jeep was parked at Koethen railroad station. Between 2 and 2:10 p.m. there was flying by four biplanes over Koethen. Two planes flew individually while the other two were flying in a formation.  On 20 November, there was flying, mostly by swept-back jet fighters, at the fit throughout the day. Some single-engine fighters and ground attack aircraft was also observed.  One swept-back jet fighter took off at 8:52 a.m. and circle over the field once and another plane of the same type took off at 8:56 a.m. for a local flight. Landings were made by a twin-engine plane at 2:03 p.m. a by a single-engine plane at 2:07 p.m. A Russian general was transcratch.	xcars, - d line ing ctures  F ad the 50X1-F
√2 .	which were apparently empty, was observed on the spur track. No loading or un loading was observed. A track branched off from the Bermburg-Koethen railroat toward the field. Four cars which were used by Soviet or German train escort personnel were on this track. No activity was observed there.  No lighting facilities were available at the field. Three trucks with box-like superstru probably mobile radio installations, were just west of the site on which the planes of the alert flight were previously parked. The previously reported D station was no longer east of the Halle-Koethen railroad line. Five or six Russians were engaged in surveying 500 meters north of Koethen-Dessau railroline, about 1,000 meters west of Osternienburg. Jeep was parked at Koethen railroad station. Between 2 and 2:10 p.m. there was flying by four biplanes over Koethen. Two planes flew individually while the other two were flying in a formation.  On 20 November, there was flying, mostly by swept-back jet fighters, at the fit throughout the day. Some single-engine fighters and ground attack aircraft walso observed.  One swept-back jet fighter took off at 8:52 a.m. and circ over the field once and another plane of the same type took off at 8:56 a.m. for a local flight. Landings were made by a twin-engine plane at 2:03 p.m. at by a single-engine plane at 2:07 p.m. A Russian general was transported to trailroad station on truck	xcars, - d line ing ctures F ad the 50X1-F
	A large portion of the containers was dug in. A freight train of about 15 bow which were apparently empty, was observed on the spur track. No loading or un loading was observed. A track branched off from the Bernburg-Koethen railroad toward the field. Four cars which were used by Soviet or German train escort personnel were on this track. No activity was observed there.  No lighting facilities were available at the field. Three trucks with box-like superstrue probably mobile radio installations, were just west of the site on which the planes of the alert flight were previously parked. The previously reported Distation was no longer east of the Halle-Koethen railroad line. Five or six Russians were engaged in surveying 500 meters north of Koethen-Dessau railroad line, about1,000 meters west of Osternienburg. Jeep was parked at Koethen railroad station. Between 2 and 2:10 p.m. there was flying by four biplanes over Koethen. Two planes flew individually while the other two were flying in a formation.  On 20 November, there was flying, mostly by swept-back jet fighters, at the find throughout the day. Some single-engine fighters and ground attack aircraft was observed.  One swept-back jet fighter took off at 8:52 a.m. and circ. over the field once and another plane of the same type took off at 8:56 a.m. for a local flight. Landings were made by a twin-engine plane at 2:03 p.m. at railroad station on truck  Between 12:20 and 3:20 p.m. on 25 November, no aircraft were observed at the field. Visibility was poor and there were intermittent showers. The rudder assembly of a MiG-15 was observed in an energy hereafter.	xcars, - d line ing ctures  F ad the 50X1-F eld ere led he 50X1-F 50X1-F
√2 .	which were apparently empty, was observed on the spur track. No loading or un loading was observed. A track branched off from the Bernburg-Koethen railroad toward the field. Four cars which were used by Soviet or German train escort personnel were on this track. No activity was observed there.  No lighting facilities were available at the field. Three trucks with box-like superstru probably mobile radio installations, were just west of the site on which the planes of the alert flight were previously parked. The previously reported D station was no longer east of the Halle-Koethen railroad line. Five or six Russians were engaged in surveying 500 meters north of Koethen-Dessau railroal line, aboutl,000 meters west of Osternienburg. Jeep was parked at Koethen railroad station. Between 2 and 2:10 p.m. there was flying by four biplanes over Koethen. Two planes flew individually while the other two were flying in a formation.  On 20 November, there was flying, mostly by swept-back jet fighters, at the first throughout the day. Some single-engine fighters and ground attack aircraft walso observed.  One swept-back jet fighter took off at 8:52 a.m. and circ over the field once and another plane of the same type took off at 8:56 a.m. for a local flight. Landings were made by a twin-engine plane at 2:03 p.m. as by a single-engine plane at 2:07 p.m. A Russian general was transported to trailroad station on truck  Between 12:20 and 3:20 p.m. on 25 November, no aircraft were observed at the field. Visibility was poor and there were intermittent showers. The rudder assembly of a Mid-15 was observed in an open hangar on the northeastern edge of the field. It had a colored stripe above the Sovjet star in its upper thin a functional station.	xcars, - d line ing ctures  F ad the 50X1-F eld ere led he 50X1-F
√2 .	A large portion of the containers was dug in. A freight train of about 15 bow which were apparently empty, was observed on the spur track. No loading or un loading was observed. A track branched off from the Bernburg-Koethen railroad toward the field. Four cars which were used by Soviet or German train escort personnel were on this track. No activity was observed there.  No lighting facilities were available at the field. Three trucks with box-like superstru probably mobile radio installations, were just west of the site on which the planes of the alert flight were previously parked. The previously reported D station was no longer east of the Halle-Koethen railroad line. Five or six Russians were engaged in surveying 500 meters north of Koethen-Dessau railroaline, about1,000 meters west of Osternienburg. Jeep was parked at Koethen railroad station. Petween 2 and 2:10 p.m. there was flying by four biplanes over Koethen. Two planes flew individually while the other two were flying in a formation.  On 20 November, there was flying, mostly by swept-back jet fighters, at the fithroughout the day. Some single-engine fighters and ground attack aircraft walso observed.  One swept-back jet fighter took off at 8:52 a.m. and circ over the field once and another plane of the same type took off at 8:56 a.m. for a local flight. Landings were made by a twin-engine plane at 2:03 p.m. at by a single-engine plane at 2:07 p.m. A Russian general was transported to the railroad station on truck  Between 12:20 and 3:20 p.m. on 25 November, no aircraft were observed at the field. Visibility was poor and there were intermittent showers. The rudder assembly of a MiG-15 was observed in an open hengar on the northeastern edge of the field. It had a colored stripe above the Soviet star in its upper thin	xcars, - d line ing ctures  F ad the 50X1-F eld ere led he 50X1-F
√2 .	which were apparently empty, was observed on the spur track. No loading or un loading was observed. A track branched off from the Bernburg-Koethen railroat toward the field. Four cars which were used by Soviet or German train escort personnel were on this track. No activity was observed there.  No lighting facilities were available at the field. Three trucks with box-like superstru probably mobile radio installations, were just west of the site on which the planes of the alert flight were previously parked. The previously reported D station was no longer east of the Halle-Koethen railroad line. Five or six Russians were engaged in surveying 500 meters north of Koethen-Dessau railro line, about1,000 meters west of Osternienburg. Jeep was parked at Koethen railroad station. Petween 2 and 2:10 p.m. there was flying by four biplanes over Koethen. Two planes flew individually while the other two were flying in a formation.  On 20 November, there was flying, mostly by swept-back jet fighters, at the fithroughout the day. Some single-engine fighters and ground attack aircraft was observed.  One swept-back jet fighter took off at 8:52 a.m. and circ over the field once and another plane of the same type took off at 8:56 a.m. for a local flight. Landings were made by a twin-engine plane at 2:03 p.m. at by a single-engine plane at 2:07 p.m. A Russian general was transported to trailroad station on truck  Between 12:20 and 3:20 p.m. on 25 November, no aircraft were observed at the field. Visibility was poor and there were intermittent showers. The rudder of the field. It had a colored stripe above the Soviet star in its upper thin A fuselage hangar. The owner mangar was closed. The settlement north of the field was	xcars,  d line ing ctures  F  ad the 50X1-F  eld ere led  he 50X1-F  50X1-F
√2 .	which were apparently empty, was observed on the spur track. No loading or un loading was observed. A track branched off from the Bernburg-Koethen railroat toward the field. Four cars which were used by Soviet or German train escort personnel were on this track. No activity was observed there.  No lighting facilities were available at the field. Three trucks with box-like superstru probably mobile radio installations, were just west of the site on which the planes of the alert flight were previously parked. The previously reported D station was no longer east of the Halle-Koethen railroad line. Five or six Russians were engaged in surveying 500 meters north of Koethen-Dessau railro line, about1,000 meters west of Osternienburg. Jeep was parked at Koethen railroad station. Petween 2 and 2:10 p.m. there was flying by four biplanes over Koethen. Two planes flew individually while the other two were flying in a formation.  On 20 November, there was flying, mostly by swept-back jet fighters, at the fithroughout the day. Some single-engine fighters and ground attack aircraft was observed.  One swept-back jet fighter took off at 8:52 a.m. and circ over the field once and another plane of the same type took off at 8:56 a.m. for a local flight. Landings were made by a twin-engine plane at 2:03 p.m. at by a single-engine plane at 2:07 p.m. A Russian general was transported to trailroad station on truck  Between 12:20 and 3:20 p.m. on 25 November, no aircraft were observed at the field. Visibility was poor and there were intermittent showers. The rudder of the field. It had a colored stripe above the Soviet star in its upper thin A fuselage hangar. The owner mangar was closed. The settlement north of the field was	xcars,  d line ing ctures  F  ad the 50X1-F  eld ere led  he 50X1-F  50X1-F

50X1-HUM

